

MICO DE NOCHE

Starting in 2001 as a 2 man indie-metal wrecking crew, Mico de Noche has continually refined its version of modern heavy music. In recent years, founding members Donovan Stewart and Mike Crum (both ex-Helltrout) teamed up with bass player Chad Baker to thicken up their live sound. The band has played extensively throughout the Northwest and West coast opening for such acts as High on Fire, Jucifer, Big Business, Kylesa, Black Elk, and Helms Alee. In July 2011, Mico de Noche returned from a 1-year hiatus, recharged by the addition of drummer Dave Foster (ex-Nirvana, Helltrout) and are booking shows for the rest of 2011 and beyond.

Praise for Mico de Noche:

"Quite possibly the loudest band on the planet."

-Weekly Volcano

"[MdN] completely bulldoze every living thing in a fifty mile radius with their rigid mix of heavy thrash, punk and flattening Sabbath meets Skynyrd doom" -Hellride Music

"like early Black Sabbath re-interpreted by Nomeansno... Kyuss with dirtier production and more drugs" -Global

Domination

"Mico de Noche unleash an epic undertaking of thrash, doom and sludge the type of which can mar the minds of young children for life. Like taking a cannon blast to the chest." -RedGage
